

DFI participated in a meeting organised by the German government to discuss new regulatory frameworks to secure debt sustainability and mitigate adverse impacts of future debt crises. The meeting concluded that there was an urgent need for such regulatory frameworks.