

This meeting, attended by representatives of developing countries, donors, CSOs and parliamentarians, discussed how to move forward on the Accra Agenda for Action commitment to increase international mutual accountability and transparency for aid. Based on the DCF review, it agreed a series of concrete steps to accelerate progress.