

DFI continues to report to various organisations on the impact of the global financial crisis on low-income countries' budgets and spending to reach the Millennium Development Goals. The latest report to Oxfam and related press coverage are available online, and a report to UNESCO as well as country case studies will shortly be available. The reports were presented on 8 October and 11 October at seminars in the BWI Annual Meetings and UNICEF.