

The Republic of Guinea, financed by the African Development Bank, has contracted DFI to conduct a national capacity building programme in aid management, and audit and control. The first evaluation mission evaluated Guinea's regulatory, legal, institutional and operational framework and designed a full implementation schedule for the remainder of the programme.