

Senegal's new 3-year Policy Support Instrument with the IMF includes detailed commitments to advance private sector development in several areas. It covers a restructuring and recovery plan for the energy sector, maintaining financial equilibrium in the water and sanitation sector, implementing actions on credit in the financial sector, enhancing business climate reforms, raising Senegal's Doing Business ranking, and enhancing governance.