

Commissioned by DFID, this report aims at analysing the impact and effectiveness of the new transparency and accountability initiatives by reviewing experience in 5 main sectors of transparency and accountability work : public service delivery; budget processes; freedom of information; natural resource governance; and aid transparency.