

Following the DeMPA mission in 2009, the World Bank and DRI jointly conducted a debt management reform plan mission in DRC. After identifying needs, a series working sessions and bilateral meetings led to the formulation of a reform plan hinging on three main areas: governance, organisational structure, and operational risks.