

Drawing on the wealth of regional and international experiences, DFI has produced two applied technical publications explaining how countries can build or reinforce the institutions necessary to monitor investment and debt.

These include:

- Monitoring and Analysing Foreign Investment: How to build sustainable institutions
- Private Sector External Debt: Main Issues and Challenges for Monitoring