

DFI has prepared a series of publications, as part of its HIPC Capacity Building Programme, covering key areas in debt strategy and public finance as well as technical briefings which are part of its extensive training materials.

DFI has prepared publications on foreign private capital under the FPC Capacity Building Programme, which augment the programme's extensive training materials and highlight country experiences in institutional-building and analysis of foreign private capital.