

DRI has helped many countries to negotiate their individual bilateral agreements with non-Paris Club creditors, to verify whether relief terms being offered are comparable with the Paris Club, and to exchange information with other debtors on how they have negotiated the most favourable terms.

For more information and to request assistance, please contact DFI