There are no translations available.

DFI was asked by the Pathfinders Grand Challenge on Inequality and Exclusion to present to Ministers of member states and leaders of other organisations on the key political and economic success stories of making taxation more progressive in recent years. The presentation covered success stories in making tax systems more progressive, solidarity contributions, leveling the playing field for all companies and individuals, fair taxation of unearned income and of wealth, and combating tax dodging and evasion. To access the presentation click here

.